Now that our favorite #ProWarRally #WeLovePutinRally speaker Tara Reade has officially "defected to russia", she wins her own thread!

Meanwhile in Russia: Tara Reade sits next to Maria Butina, complains about America's terrible roads and endless wars, grumbles about being baselessly accused of having ties to Russia and humbly asks Putin for Russian citizenship.

Not exactly surprising. Tara Reade has been pretty open about her pro-russia stance. Remember when some were shocked to see russian flags (also soviet flags, russian imperial flags, etc) at the #ProWarRally; #WeLovePutinRally ...

... and would engage in all sorts of unconvincing gaslighting to deny responsibility for it...

... Tara Reade, conversely, was genuinely happy to see them:

Likewise, when someone posted this edit of the official #ProWarRally #WeLovePutinRally graphics with different (but real) quotes, her fans were outraged... up until Tara Reade herself confirmed she still stood by them 🙄

I do say positive things and I did. I stand by everything I have said or written about Putin. Frame it if you like. He is a great leader for his country and lifted them from poverty in 2000s. He also has averted nuclear war with west by his patience and diplomacy.

President Putin's genius is his judo ability to conserve his own energy and let the opponents flail, using up their energy, while he gains position. Currently, President Putin has a higher approval rating in America than the American President, particularly with women. President Putin has an alluring combination of strength with gentleness. His sensuous image projects his love for life, the embodiment of grace while facing adversity. It is evident that he loves his country, his people and his job. Although his job may seem like in the words of writer, Elizabeth Gilbert on genius, "trying to swallow the sun." This is a whole lot to deal with for one mere mortal... President Putin's obvious reverence for women, children and animals, and his ability with sports is intoxicating to American women. Especially since the bloated, American President is so negative, denigrating and dismissive of anyone but himself as he stumbles even playing golf (which is not a real sport anyway but a past time, sorry golfers).

President Putin has taken his nation and his people towards new horizons of developing prosperity with education, science, technology and innovation. While in America, news of more jobs lost, punishing tariffs and ignorant, environmental policies abound. Sanctions mount and scandals alight the media.

So, I am not watching our country with naive or star spangled eyes or any other nation. I will keep pushing for the America that we could be. My best America embodies compassion; diversity, creativity, future oriented innovation and positive approaches to diplomacy. Further, America needs no more xenophobic rhetoric. When the anti-Russia, anti-Putin propaganda starts up, personally, I shut down. I love Russia, I love my Russian relatives and friends. And like most women across the world, I like President Putin... a lot, his shirt on or shirt off.

President Putin scares the power elite in America because he is a compassionate, caring, visionary leader. President Putin has higher approval ratings in America than the American President. President Putin is beloved by Russia and he not going anywhere. Instead of being ensnared in the recent political intrigues (and America is trying hard to set that trap). President Putin is keeping a calm focus on his own country's development and future, without America.

To President Putin, I say keep your eyes to the beautiful future and maybe, just maybe America will come to see Russia as I do, with eyes of love. To all my Russian friends, happy holiday and Happy New Year.

Yes, Tara Reade really likes Putin. She was also a contributor to RT (russia state-affiliated media).

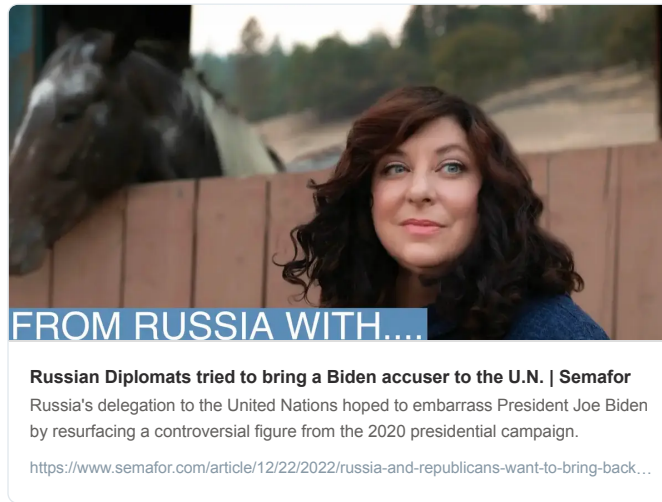

A screenshot of a Twitter thread from December 4, 2019. The thread consists of four tweets. The first tweet is by Julia Ioffe (@juliaioffe) and says: "I forgot to include a couple things: Putin has brought organized crime into the government so that now the Kremlin acts like an extortion syndicate/protection racket, he wants to weaken the U.S. and to expand Russian power at America's expense, he interfered in our elections, etc". The second tweet is a reply by Tara Reade (@ReadeAlexandra) to Julia Ioffe, saying: "With all due respect, Vladimir Putin is always cast as a villain by America. But is he? I worked for the Senate, I know the plan to bring Russia to its knees. Of course Putin pushes back to protect his country. And America has had the mafia entrenched for decades in government." The third tweet is a reply by Sfnativekelly (@sfnativekelly) to both Tara Reade and Julia Ioffe, saying: "He murders journalists, and people who speak out against him. The country is mob ruled. He's an evil, thin skinned, insecure strong man and a bad guy." The fourth tweet is another reply by Tara Reade to Sfnativekelly and Julia Ioffe, saying: "I understand you have been told to 'hate' this man. But do you know him? Have you examined objective evidence? I worked in Congress, our country is quite violent with other nations and corrupt. America needs to examine it's own violent imperialism and corrupt government."

A screenshot of an article on the RT website. The page header includes the RT logo and navigation links: "QUESTION MORE", "Russia & Former Soviet Union", "World news", "Business", "India", "Africa", "RT Features", "Analysis", and "Op-ed". Below the header, the article title is "America's demonization project against me is complete". The article text says: "I've been vilified, hounded and denounced for nearly three years since making my sexual assault accusation against Joe Biden. But will I shut up? Hell, no". The date is "Feb 13, 2022 20:23". Below this is another article titled "Why are Russian women still such a target for Western media?". Its text says: "Most of us, especially those with Catholic backgrounds, are familiar with the 'Madonna/whore' complex. This 'either/or' Western construct seeps into pop culture and creates stereotypes of women. It's a cross that most...". The date is "Jan 31, 2022 17:40". The third article is titled "An Italian showgirl, a US general, and the weaponization of sexual misconduct". Its text says: "Michela Morellato spent months getting flirty texts from the US military's top man in Africa, before he was finally fired. The case showed how there's a heavy price to pay for those who receive unwanted sexual advances". The date is "Jan 17, 2022 11:33". The fourth article is titled "What price truth? How America's whistleblowers fared in 2021". Its text says: "This year's not been kind to the truth-tellers. Many of them tried in vain to expose the corruption at the heart of governments or the criminal endeavors of the elites. But will 2022 be any different? It's up to us to decide". The date is "Dec 31, 2021 18:58".

Tara Reade denying russian disinformation with... Dmitry Polyanskiy 😂

"Your name was too toxic for them and they did everything they could to block you from participating," Polyanskiy told Reade of her exclusion.

YouTube

Reade told Semafor that a Russian U.N. diplomat reached out to her in recent weeks, saying they had seen her criticisms of the war in Ukraine on social media and her YouTube channel. Reade said she is a "longtime anti-imperialist," and that her comments stem from her frustration with "Russophobia" and the military industrial complex.

"They deflect it as Russian disinformation, which is not true," she said of Western diplomats at the United Nations. "I don't really understand the deflection or the resistance to doing simply accounting and oversight."

○ MAX'S VIEW

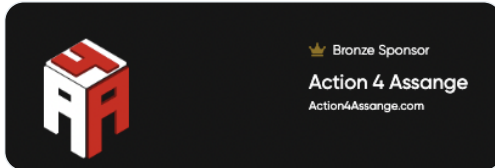

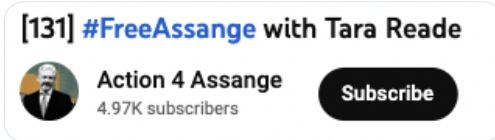

The Russian attempt to embarrass Biden by calling Reade as a briefer didn't work.

Z (military symbol)

Article Talk

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

"Z symbol" redirects here. For other uses, see Z (disambiguation).

"Zwastika" redirects here. For swastika, see Swastika (disambiguation).

The Latin-script letter Z (Russian: зет, tr. zet, IPA: [zɛt]) is one of several symbols (including "V" and "O") painted on military vehicles of the Russian Armed Forces involved in the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine. It is speculated that the Z helps distinguish task forces from one another and serves as an identifier to avoid friendly fire;<sup>[1][2]</sup> however, Russian officials have claimed various meanings for the symbol.

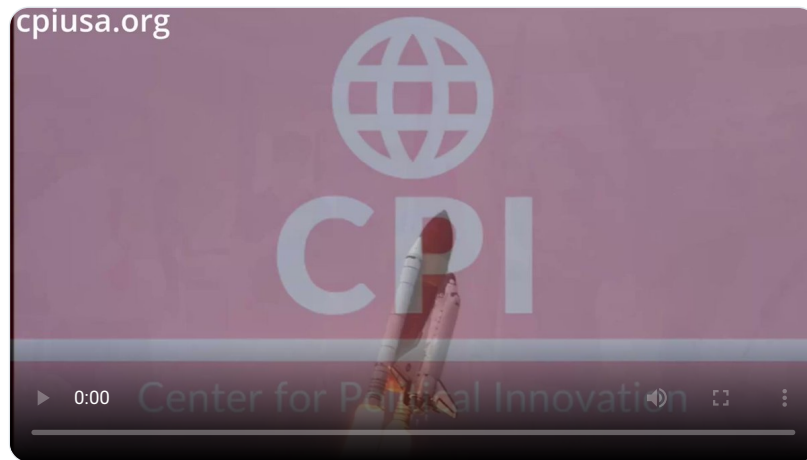

Due to its association with the war in Ukraine, the Z has become a militarist symbol in Russian propaganda<sup>[9]</sup> and is used by Russian civilians to indicate support for the invasion. The symbol has subsequently been banned from public display in various countries, and its use has been criminalized by several European governments. Opponents of the war have pejoratively called the Z symbol a zwastika or zwastika, in reference to the Nazi swastika,<sup>[15]</sup> or derisively in Russian and Ukrainian as ziga (Russian: зига), in reference to Sieg Heil.<sup>[19]</sup> Some Ukrainian officials and Internet users have referred to Russia as Ruzzia or RuZZia (Russian: Рozzия or РoZZия; Ukrainian: Pоzzія or PоZZія).<sup>[24]</sup>
