A long thread showing that the fraudulently named "Rage Against the War Machine" is actually pro-war, pro-Russia, and anti-Ukraine, using videos and screenshots of the rally's speakers and related info.

Like and share to expose their heinous agenda.

Yes, because an organizer of an anti-war rally actively champions one side. Which is literally not anti-war.

I don't claim to be anti-war; never did. There are rabid dogs out there, and we need Atticus Finch's to shoot them.
I do, however, object to the senseless shooting of healthy dogs.
Ukraine is a rabid dog.
Russia is Atticus Finch.

Jackson Hinkle casually uses the phrase "blood and soil".

Blood and soil
Article · Talk

For the book by Ben Kiernan, see Blood and Soil (book).

Blood and soil (German: Blut und Boden) is a nationalist slogan expressing Nazi Germany's ideal of a racially defined national body ("blood") united with a settlement area ("soil"). By it, rural and farm life forms are idealized as a counterweight to urban ones. It is tied to the contemporaneous German concept of Lebensraum, the belief that the German people were to expand into Eastern Europe, conquering and displacing the native Slavic and Baltic population via Generalplan Ost.
