In today's #vatniksoup, I'll introduce an American pro-Russian propagandist, Wyatt Reed (@wyattreed13). He's best-known for his work for Sputnik, and for parroting the classic Kremlin narratives such as "Ukrainian Nazis", "genocide in Donbas" & the "corrupted Kiev regime".

1/19

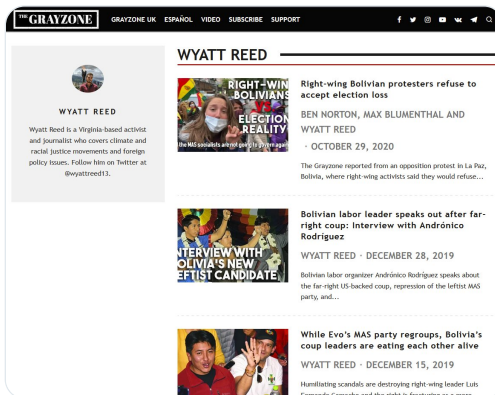

Like with so many Kremlin propagandists, Wyatt's motivation stems from his deep hatred for American imperialism, and as is tradition, Reed's praised "public intellectuals" like Noam Chomsky and John Pilger.

2/19

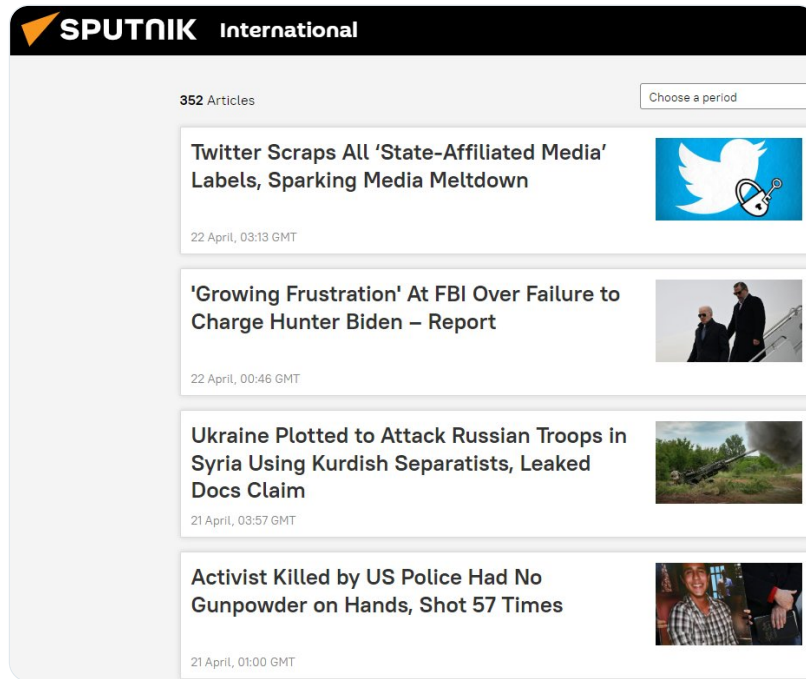

Reed was also an author at the fake news blog, @TheGrayzoneNews, where he co-authored articles with Max Blumenthal and Ben Norton on Bolivia's political crisis in 2019. He hasn't published anything there after 2020, perhaps due to his contract with Sputnik.

3/19

Wyatt has called himself an "impartial analyst", but naturally he's nothing but a paid mouthpiece for the Kremlin. He's worked for the Russian-state controlled Sputnik for several years.

4/19

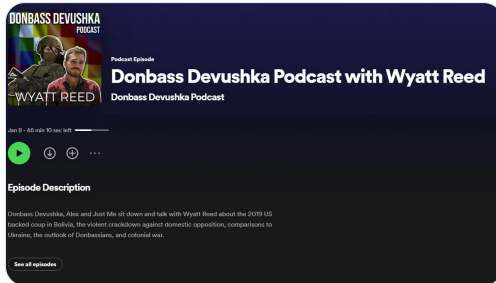

Reed's heavily involved in the circle jerk of pro-Kremlin propagandists who for some reason call themselves journalists. He's been interviewed by Katie Halper & Aaron Maté (@UsefulIdiotpod), Gonzalo Lira (@GonzaloLira1968), Liubov Sivaya (@liusivaya), ...

5/19

Tara "Joe Biden raped me" Reade (@ReadeAlexandra), Lee Camp from RT (@LeeCamp), and of course by our own favorite "poor woman from Lugansk", Donbass Devushka.

6/19

Wyatt's propagand relies heavily on the "genocide in Donbas" narrative. He's often reported from Donetsk, claiming that the "Ukrainian Nazis" are bombing civilian targets. Apparently for Wyatt the definition of a Nazi is "anyone who supports Ukraine".

7/19

NYT can barely contain their rage as Berlusconi points out Kiev violated Minsk accords & killed 1000s in Donbass, & Italian politicians left & right look to stop arming Nazis & spend the $ at home.

Even the Church is accused of joining the "peace-at-all-costs" camp—the audacity!

Between Mar and Apr 2022, Reed was constantly tweeting about Mariupol. He tweeted about the "Azov base" with "copious quantities of nazi paraphernalia", like the hat with the coat Nazi Germany Coat and Arms and SS Totenkopf logo that the Russians planted there.

He's also shared several propaganda videos of crisis actors blaming the Azov for using them as human shields & forcing them to stay in the city. For some weird reason he did not tweet about the Mariupol theater or the maternity hospital bombings conducted by Russia.

After Bucha, Reed attempted to muddy the waters with Ukrainian war crimes. He also referred to the event as "so-called Bucha massacre", and stating how the Western media is silent on the "clearing operation", referring to the eradication of Russian forces in the area.

10/19

Wyatt Reed @wyattreed13

So the massive global campaign to accuse Russians of "war crimes" in Bucha started 24 hours after Ukrainian nationalists filmed themselves committing 100% verified, actual war crimes... seven miles away?

A video posted online on Monday and verified by The Times appears to show Ukrainian soldiers killing captured Russian troops outside a village west of Kyiv on or around March 30, as the Russians were withdrawing. He was an "international observer" at the sham referendum in Sep 2022 in Sevastopol, Ukraine. "Everything I've seen so far has been very transparent, very open," he commented to TASS when asked about the situation at the polling station.

The historic referendum to realign with Russia may not be popular among NATO regimes but here in Moscow, tens of thousands are celebrating as President Putin warns the West that those living in the four regions which were formally incorporated today "are becoming [Russian] citizens—forever."

Observer from the United States called transparent and democratic voting in referendums

As Wyatt Reed noted, people "want to express their democratic will to self-determination."

SEBASTOPOL, September 24. /TASS/. Residents of the republics of Donbas, Zaporozhye and Kherson regions express their democratic will in referendums on joining the Russian Federation, the voting process in Sevastopol is transparent. This was stated to journalists on Saturday by American journalist Wyatt Reed, who is an observer at the polling stations in Sevastopol.

"Everything I've seen so far has been very transparent, very open," Wyatt Reed said at the polling station. - We see how many people are here, only in the last few minutes about a dozen people voted. It is clear that people here consider this very important, they want to express their democratic will to self-determination, and it is clear that this referendum - approx. TASS) is the most direct way to do this.

Henrique Domingues, an observer from Brazil, noted the high level of organization of voting in referendums and its compliance with international standards. This is the first polling station that we have visited here so far. It seems that the electoral process is proceeding normally," he said.

"I have been visiting polling stations in Russia and other countries as an international observer for seven years. So far, everything is going well, people are voting calmly, in with their will. We see that the electoral process was well organized," said an in Brazil. "We see that the ballots correspond to the world level of reliability of this level of resilience of people who consider this vote to own citizens and is at"

In the end of Feb 2023, Reed was tweeting how "50,000 Germans came out [...] to call for peace and demand their government "stop the escalation of arms deliveries" to Ukraine". He just forgot to mention that these events were also orchestrated by the Kremlin.

In his promo video for an "antiwar gathering", Reed accuses Ukraine of Russia's strategy of "double-tapping" (i.e. bombing twice) civilian targets.

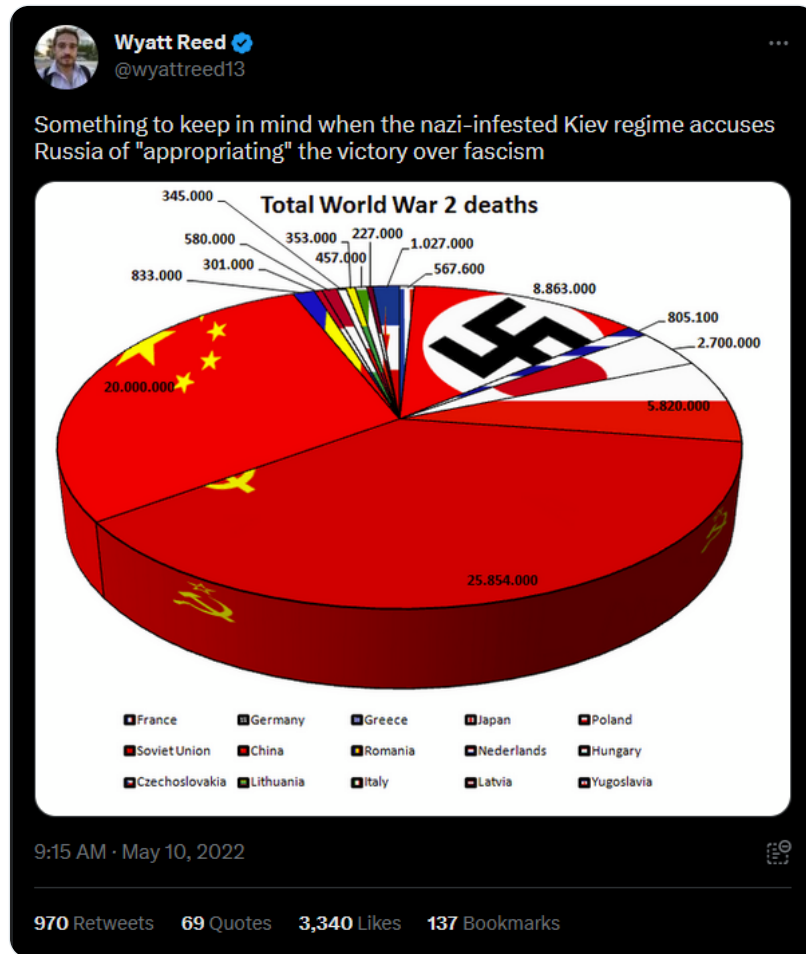

In the same video he claimed that the whole war is waged because US needs to launder money to the "elite".

14/19

Wyatt also likes to spice things up with historical revisionism. His claims that it was the Soviets who stopped the Nazis incidentally forgets to mention the military aid and involvement of the US, and the breakthroughs made from UK intel.

15/19

He also forgot to mention that it was actually the Poles, Belorussians and the Ukrainians who lost the largest percentage of population.
