

Dietmar Pichler 🇪🇺🇺🇦 @DietmarPichler1

Mar 10 · 5 tweets · DietmarPichler1/status/1501942999684567047

If you are a teacher or journalist 🙌 (thread)

- 1) there was never a "civil war" or "ethnic conflict" in Ukraine
- 2) there was never any kind of "Russian language ban"
- 3) The founders of the "separatist republics" were Russian nationalists from Moscow not coal miners from Donbas

If you host a panel discussion, correct your guests, if they use these false narratives, made up by the Kremlin.

Ukraine has never waged war against its own people.

Russian speaking Ukrainians ≠ "Separatists", they also love their country 🇺🇦.

Putin's war against Ukraine is not about NATO, it is because he does not allow his neighbors to have a free, democratic and European 🇪🇺 future and he wants to restore the "Russian Empire".

Ukraine was non-aligned in 2014, when Russia annexed Crimea and attacked in Donbas. This is why the idea of joining NATO became popular.

It is not a big country, attacking a similar, smaller country, it is a dictatorship attacking a free, democratic and European country.

...