

Sergej Sumlenny @sumlenny

Nov 2 · 7 tweets · sumlenny/status/1587707869629145088

Wow, I have not seen this anti-Ukrainian video by Navalny before. Thank you @motytschak for noticing. The video is obvious from after 2019 (Zelensky is a president already). It is worth to translate it in whole.

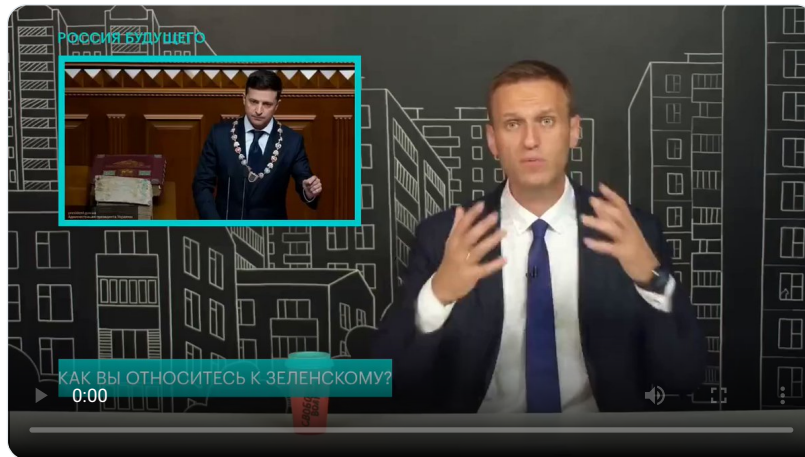

Navalny: "Ukraine is amazing country, but"/1

"Ukraine is more corrupt than Russia. Despite the fantastic level of corruption here. (Ukrainian) oligarchs control the most part of economy. Some filthy clans, the whole Ukrainian elite... ok, not the whole but 95%, is a bunch of crooked scoundrels"/2

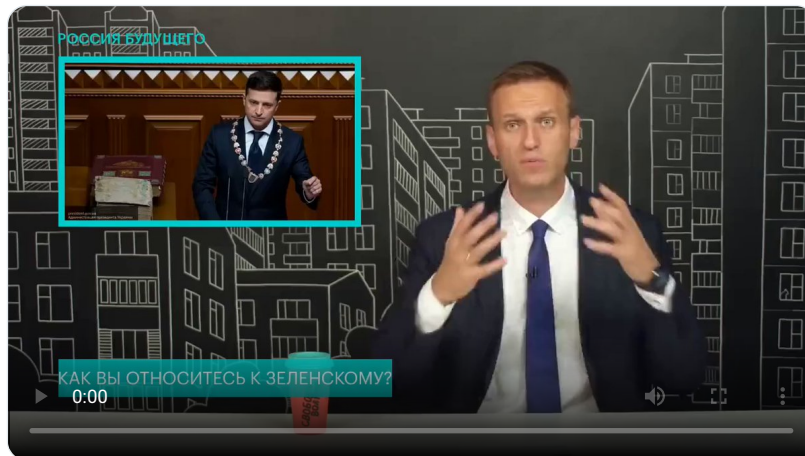

"any Russian crooked scoundrel is nothing compared to them. We at least have people who are not connected to each other. Who are in a fight. For example we and Putin. We don't see them, we do not interact, do no talk. But in the Ukraine (na Ukraine)..." /3

"...in the Ukraine (na Ukraine) everything is intertwined, everyone forges new alliances daily, totally rejecting any political principles."

Wow, it was strong. And a part of BOTH all-Russian anti-Ukrainian and Western "Ukraine is corrupt" narratives /4

If Ukraine was "corrupt" in reality, is visible now, as Ukraine is provenly the most efficient military power in Europe - and we know, effective use of military force is impossible amid corruption AND lack of resources (and Ukraine has way less resources compared to Russia).

A standard, but unfortunately necessary disclaimer: Navalny is a prisoner of conscience who was arrested and charged against any law, and is obviously subject of torture by Russian dictatorial state, and as a personal enemy of Putin. What happed to him is a crime. He must be free Navalny was also put (acc. to his team, and we do not have any reason not to trust them in this case) to a top-security cell with the official (!) name "punishment isolator" (SHtrafnoi IZOlyator, SHIZO) yesterday. It is a clear torture and must stop, exactly as his imprisonment.

...

