

Sergej Sumlenny @sumlenny

Jul 13 · 5 tweets · sumlenny/status/1547257765357314052

Putin clearly pursues racist goals in this war. It is not only elimination of Ukrainian nation. He also burns youth from non-ethnic-Russian regions of Russia (Bashkirs, Buryats, Dagestani, Kalmyks) and kidnaps ethnic Ukrainians who he believes he can russify and make to "aryans".

Putin is afraid of a very realistic Russia's breakup, which can happen only on ethnic reasons. Tatars, Bashkirs, Yakuts, Buryats will not tolerate RU supremacy anymore, or forgive ethnic oppression, robbery on their oil, gas, diamonds. To prevent it, Putin kills their youth.

And as a "compensation" for over-mortality during his reign (especially amid the covid pandemic) Putin kidnaps millions of Ukrainians from the East of Ukraine (many are Russian-speaking), spreads them through the country in order to russify them within one generation. Evil plans.

One can see the results of the same politics from the former decades and centuries (already the Czars deported Ukrainians to Russian-occupied Far East on Pacific coast). Amid Russian high-rank officers KIA in Ukraine - people with extra-Ukrainian surnames like Horobets or Koval.

These are clearly the kids of russified Ukrainians. Putin want to repeat this evil genocide once again: to kidnap people, to re-educate them and to force them to fight for their own torturers. Btw, if Putin continues his occupation of Ukrainian regions, he will do it there too.