„Russian Military Deception“

The evolution of the Russian “maskirovka” doctrine:

As early as 1924 the Soviet high command considered deception to be “based upon the principles of activity, naturalness, diversity and continuity. It is to include secrecy, imitation, demonstrative actions and disinformation.”...

Opinion: Maskirovka – Can We Believe Anything Russia Says or Does?

Question: How can you tell if Putin's lying? Answer: Because his lips are moving!
The old schoolboy joke has never been truer.
