Leftists should be careful not to talk to Libyans about Libya, or if they do, to hold their hands over their ears. Because Libyans keep giving the wrong answers concerning Qaddafi's glorious anti-imperialist dictatorship.

Among the worst of leftist idiots are those who warn that if there's any military action to stop Assad killing Syrians, 'Syria will become another Libya'. Syria under Assad is incomparably worse than Libya in post-dictator chaos.

In order to keep their 'proxy war' and western 'regime change' stories going, they have to totally erase the agency of many millions of Arabs. This is because they are racists, these people so convinced of their radical progressivism.

Many of them are just as racist to Ukrainians. Ukrainians who are giving tens of thousands of lives and dedicating all their time and energy to fighting off genocidal invasion. Then leftists decide Ukrainians are the passive/stupid victims of a proxy war.
